

COMPLAINT FORM FOR DISCRIMINATION, SEXUAL HARASSMENT, PROTECTED STATUS HARASSMENT & RETALIATION

Any person who believes that they have been the victim of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation or has observed such behavior should immediately report this information to one of the designated University officials, such as your immediate supervisor, human resources, department chair, dean or director, or professor. Anyone who is uncomfortable reporting these concerns to one of these individuals may contact the Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion. The Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion provides guidance and assistance to all members of the university community including administrators, managers and supervisors, faculty and staff, applicants for employment, students, and recipients of university services, including visitors, who have questions about possible discrimination. With the permission of the individual raising the concern, the Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion staff members may also make inquiries with appropriate university officials based on issues raised during this process. INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING A COMPLAINT STATEMENT

On the following page, please write a short, clear statement of your complaint of discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation. You may create your own and attach it with this form if you need more space. The following information should be included in your statement:

- Your contact information, including full name, local address, telephone number, and email address;
- The name and job title of the offending person and the relationship to complainant (e.g., supervisor, dean, co-worker, etc.). If there is more than one person named in the complaint, please submit a separate statement for each person. If you are filing a complaint on someone else's behalf, please also provide the name and contact information for that person.
- The protected status of the complainant that led to the alleged discrimination, harassment, or retaliation;
- For each protected status, a description of why you believe the actions of the accused toward you were based on that protected status;
- The dates, time period, and the location of each of the actions or incidents believed to be discriminatory;
- The effect that the actions or incidents have had on the complainant's work, instructional, or study environment, or the complainant's ability to take part in university programs or activities;
- The names and contact information for individuals who may have information regarding the allegations;
- The names of any individuals who are similarly situated and who might have experienced similar treatment;
- Other relevant information supporting the allegations (do not refer to supporting materials in lieu of describing them in your statement); and
- Sign and date the complaint and deliver it to the Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion, 432 N. Lake St., Room 201, Madison, WI 53706. 608-262-3969 or 7-1-1 for Wisconsin Relay
